

Why in the world would NAB even conceive of limiting a great service such as weather and traffic on satellite radio. I pay for the service and should be entitled to receiving such essential information without regulation.